VP & Committee reports were given, 1st VP John Hoscheidt reported on the change for Holly Days. The 1st VP will be the Chairman of this event. That person will set sub committee's to help with Holly Days. We hope to have more retail businesses involved in Holly Days. A flow sheet will be presented at the July meeting. John also informed us that the Aledo Magazine should be out very shortly.

2nd VP Lance Meyer reported the Golf Outing was all set and ready to tee off after the meeting.

3rd VP Co-op Dr. Glenda Foy gave an update on the 2007 Mercer County Events & Festivals. Mergo & Mercer County Tourism flyer's are out with all the wonderful dates of things to do this summer. Also she will be having a Birthday Party at Oak View Country Club on July 7th from 1 - 4 p.m. It sounds like there will be lots to do and lots of fun, hope everyone will help her celebrate her Birthday.

Bob Vickrey & Annette Speer are chairmen for the Pie & Ice Cream booth at the 4th of July Fireworks this year. The Aledo Cheerleaders have volunteered to work the booth. At this time we have 18 pies donated, if you would like to donate a apple or cherry pie call Bob 582-2542, Annette 582-5145, or Diane at the Chamber office 582-5373.

Our guests today were Ledith Whitehall Cheerleading Advisor for Aledo High School along with Sara Long, & Chloe Lee Captains. They were presented a Check for $221.00 from the Chamber for running the Jumping Balloon at the Rhubarb Fest. The cheerleaders also did face painting to raise money for next year.

Guest speaker was Tom Cook Golf Pro at Oak View Country Club. The topic was Golf rules & etiquette. Have your own clubs; be ready to play when it's your turn. Assist others who don't know the rules. Let faster golfers play through at the next tee. Never drive your cart between the sand trap and the green or on the tee. Be aware of others on the course.

Raffle: Antique car donated by Dorothy & Glenn Bennett was won by Gus Hart

A 30 minute massage donated by Chiropractic Art Center won by Faye Echardt
